USC Professional Students

GWEP Programs Overview

Interprofessional Geriatrics Curriculum (IPGC)

Teams of seven students from different health professional programs are paired with an older adult living in a low- income community housing complex. Students will meet on five half days during the academic year, including an introduction and program overview session, three visits at the older adult's residence, and a wrap up session. Each team meeting with the older adult is facilitated by a faculty mentor and preceded by a brief academic lecture on a topic which is the focus of that day's team visit.

Senior Student Partnership Program (SSPP)

Teams of three to four students from different health professional programs are partnered with an older adult from the community, USC alumnus/alumna, or a retired faculty member. Students will meet five times during the academic year, including three visits with their senior partners: one home visit, one healthcare visit, and one leisure activity of the senior partner's choice.
